WASHINGTON - U.S. uilseed slucks are expected in increase in 1979-80 unless southern hemisphere nations, especially Brazil, have a poor crop next year, said J. Dawson Ahalt, chairman of the U.S. Agriculture Department's World Fnod and Agricultural Outlook and Situation Board. Speaking at a foud marketing institute meeting, Mr. Ahalt said production of oilseeds would substantially exceed re-ourements. He sold greater price strength may exist for oils than for meel, especially if India is forced to Import large amounts of vegelable oils because of monsoon season dantage to its groundnut crop. Reuter day by several special situations. The chief event was Thorn the chief event was Thorn rallied on a revived small in-Electrical's surprise share ex-change offer for EMI which rose effects of a bear squeeze, to close sharply to 132p before aetling i higher. a net 32 bigber at 127p. The Although business in income former, however, reacted violently to close 38 down at 372p on the prospect of a dilution of its equity capital, if the bid succeeds.

The tono at the outset in the equity sectors was unsettled by persisting rumours that details of the proposed British Petro-lcum sale were imminent, by enryonsness ahead of the Sep-tember trade figures and by reports that Midland Bank was in the throes of placing its 16 per cent holding in Standard Chartered Bank with various institutions.

Confirmation of the Govern-ment's intention to raise funds in the region of £200m £300m by selling only 5 per cent of Its holding in BP, a lower percen-tage than the market was expecting, was made well after market bours.

Meanwhile, sentiment in leading equities was helped by the Thorn bid for EMI and by hopes that the Standard Chartered share placing would soon be com-pleted; late last night is was snggested that over 70 per cent of the stake had been placed. As a result, a recovery in values got underway. Announcement of the September trade returns bad little impact on sentiment and the FT 30-share index, which registered a loss of 4.7 at noon, and Unlon, 342p, gradually rallied to close 4.5 up among Discounts. on the day at 472.5. However, the sharp rise in EMI accounted for virtually all of the day's gain.

The steps now under scrutiny Brussels could involve special duties-amounting in certain cases to 30 per centbeing imposed unilaterally by the EEC on a range of petrochemicals produced by the U.S. at about two-thirds of European costs.

The most controversial alement in the plan pushed by the European producers is the use of Article 20 (i) of the GATT to impose counterveiling duties of up to 10 per cent on U.S. petrochemicals.

Although unusued to date, this singles out increased exports of materials "during periods when the domestic price of such materials is beld below the world price as part of a governmental stabilisation plan."

THE LEX COLUMN Hazardous plunge for Thorn

The decision of the Govern-ment to reveal the size of the forthcoming BP offer-which will be only about half the figure originally indicated at the time of the Budget in June—was evidently designed to get the price up before the underwritprice up before the underwrit-ing process begins. It certainly bad a big impact, with the share price sbooting up 30p. or 9 per cent, on the news to 362p. At this level 5 per cent of BP is valued at £230m. That can be absorbed by the market easily enough Bat yes-market easily enough. But yes-terday Cazenove reached the limit of the market's capacity for Standard Chartered shares.

The response of the stock market to Thorn's offer for EMI was to knock £53m-about 9 per cent—off the former's market capitalisation and to add £35m to the market value of EMI, which finished 32p up at 127p, around 3p below the effective value of the seven-for-twenty all-equity terms. This snap conclusion that two plus two equals something less than four reflects the value that Thorn's shareholders have placed on its safe, solid stream of earnings from TV rental, Around 60 per cent of its profits come from the consumer electronics side. Now the group is plunging into the hazardous world of music and the EMI scanner, and is adding some 28 per cent to its equity in the process.

It seems likely that Thorn, with a queue of others, has been nibbling at EMI's most attractive single business business-defence electronicswith a view to plugging an obvious gap in its own industrial coverage. But the price would bave been bigh, Thorn could not bave been sure of getting it, and so has decided to take the cal-

This follows letters by some Ministers to nationalised indus-try chairmen last week giving the impression that the increase in the index to the end of the year was to ba taken as a bench mark for the industries' casb limits for 1980-81.

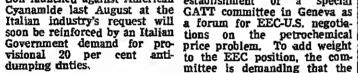

Ministers now stress that they hsd meant their letters, based on a central Treasury draft, to refer to the retail price iodex forecasts for the 1980-81 period of the cash limit's themselves.

This would involve pay bill increases nearer 12 per cent than the 17½ per cent figure gaioing ground in recevt days.

The significance of this is that the Government wants to use the cash limit exercise to focus wage negotiators' attention on the expected falling rate of the retail price index next year instead of agreeing to settle for pay rises in tine with past price increases.

The letters that caused the
